HDR Remodeling Awarded top LGBTQ Owned Business from California State Senate

Berkeley, CA (July 30, 2018) - HDR Remodeling was awarded a Certificate of Recognition in honor of their business's distinction as one of the top LGBTQ owned businesses in the Bay Area. The award was given by Scott Wiener, Democratic Senator representing the 11th Senate District of the State of California, which encompasses San Francisco and parts of San Mateo County.

HDR Remodeling is a full service residential Design + Build remodeling contractor serving Berkeley and the greater East Bay Area. Founded by President Philip Anderson over 30 years ago, HDR Remodeling has grown from its early days as a handyman company. The company's reputation for quality work, superior service, and commitment to their community has transformed HDR Remodeling into a full service remodeling firm that specializes in custom kitchens, bathrooms, whole house remodels and in recent years, ADUs, also known as accessory dwelling units or guest houses.

As noted in the Certificate of Recognition to HDR Remodeling, "It is vital to our community to have LGBTQ representation as leaders and owners of our local businesses. [HDR Remodeling's] unwavering commitment to LGBTQ equality in the work place is commendable." The award thanks HDR Remodeling for their contribution to diversity and congratulates them on their achievements.

As a company that aspires to transform the East Bay community to make each home a special place, HDR Remodeling has cultivated a workplace that fosters creativity, empowerment, and acceptance. Proud to have received this coveted Certificate of Recognition, HDR Remodeling will continue their commitment to building a better community one home remodel at a time.
